Hi Cheryl – Sure, no problem. You can have her email/call me. But, just to be clear I think most of my (helpful) knowledge on the subject will be from the regulatory point of view.

Regards,
John

Hi John,

We are trying to better understand the US market for rodenticides so when we meet with prospective commercial partners/licensees we are well informed. In that effort we have asked Rene Mallett of Foresight Inc. to conduct a market review for SenesTech. She authored the Foresight Inc. report on the international rodenticide market for us that was paid for by the NIH SBIR program. I am contacting you to see if you are willing to talk with Rene regarding fertility control technology in general. I appreciate your time in doing this.

Hope your summer is starting well.

Best regards,

Cheryl
